Sofia

Thank you for organising a truly splendid weekend for the Society.

Our members (and their wives) are very good at complaining and will usually find a good selection of things to complain about. They completely failed this weekend. There were absolutely no complaints. On the contrary they even admitted that they had enjoyed themselves!!

The tours and restaurants were all absolutely excellent, and the musicians on Sunday evening were a real bonus.

Please thank Isabel and Manuel for us - we all enjoyed Isabel's commentary enormously.

Several members are already planning another visit!

Regards

John
